Terrace Table Lamp

Product Features

Given its design is reminiscent of terracotta pots and vessels, the Terrace Table Lamp is a composition any gardener will love. But you don't have to enjoy pottering around the flower beds to appreciate the antique white crackle finish that has been applied with some areas left bare. This design move is a style note, as it leaves the natural terracotta beneath visible to act in concert with the punched cylinder to bring texture to the lamp. The Terrace is topped with an alabaster linen shade to make the earthy original a cultivator's delight.
