Epigram Table Lamp

Product Features

Though the no-nonsense Epigram Table Lamp with its polished concrete finish foregoes witticisms for strength of character, the texture of the base sitting upon its aged steel plinth will introduce earthy charm to any space. The tall clean lines of the body of this 33-inch tall lamp is topped with a bone linen shade. The combination brings the composition a hint of a modern vernacular that makes it so versatile it will sit just as spryly within a traditional home as it will stand tall within a lakeside retreat or cabin in the woods.
