Azure Table Lamp

Product Features

Perched atop an optic crystal base that matches its finial, the ceramic column of our Azure Table Lamp lives up to its name with its lovely blue glaze that has hints of striations running through it. The subtle texture the finish brings to this lamp makes it a fabulous choice for a room that can use a bit of complexity. Fitted with a gray birch silk shade, its a handsome choice for a den, a living room or a study.
