Fudo Floor Lamp

Product Features

The Fudo Floor Lamp has such a simple design, it can make itself at home in any number of settings, and it is a shoe-in for industrial chic interiors that demand a bit of a material edge. The ideal size for placing next to a sofa or chair for those mornings, afternoons or evenings of reading, the lamp has a wrought iron frame that has been treated to a Mol black finish. This creates a contrast to the polished concrete base that anchors it. The interior of the shade is bathed in a gold leaf finish to enhance the light flowing from it.
